

Can't Make Up My Mind: Gloria Tells – Back Translation - Desastre En Mi Cabeza

So many questions without answers but the moment for you to give them has already passed you found excuses not to give them to me so many that I swear I'm fed up!

This is the end and now I have to move on I want to forget, yet I can't stop crying

*I wish I could be
that kind of woman
with no heart at all
and not a whirlwind of emotions, no! no!*

*I wish I could be
that kind of woman
with no heart at all and not this mess in my head I have to fix*

*How can I forget you if I can't stop, no! looking at your photo over and over again, oh!
with that silly smile of yours that won't leave my head I just can't find the delete function now!*

*This is the end and now I have to move on
I want to forget, yet I can't stop crying.*

Beautiful night while I'm in bed and you, who knows who you're with clutching my pillow tight and crumbs everywhere just a mess in my head, with no sleep.
