

“Hiatus” - King Sis - Back Translation – En Pausa

I want to be, yes, alone
I want to be without seeing or hearing from you it's not personal
I'm not lying nor holding any special grudge I'm just praying, or maybe meditating on whether it's better to leave it all behind

Because you've been posting about us on social media with that same old nerve as if you were winning I chose to be with my rhymes while I clean the kitchen I couldn't care less what you say because I'm on a hiatus
I'm just on a hiatus I'm just on a hiatus I want to be on a hiatus

Babe, don't push it anymore!
I want time for myself to feel life to be without screens or displays to feel to live

I want to be, without hearing from you
it's not personal
I'm not faking it I just want to feel a little bit normal but I'm crying, or well, every now and then I sleep because I can't take it anymore

You never give up don't call me with more of your nonsense I've already blocked you and today I'm asking to call the game off I'm finally settling down and now I'm moving on with my room if anyone asks what's wrong with me nothing I'm just on a hiatus
I'm just on a hiatus I'm just on a hiatus I want to be on a hiatus

Babe, don't push it anymore!
I want time for myself to feel life to be without screens or displays because there is another life out there in a serene place, alone and at peace where I'm in no rush to answer any phone calls
